

Building Codes of Australia (BCA)

BCA provides user access to Australian building codes.

The Codes are available online at the Saiglobal website.

To access this site type <http://bca.saiglobal.com/>
into the browser internet address box.

This will navigate to the Saiglobal login page.

A screenshot of the SAI GLOBAL login page. The page has a red header with the SAI GLOBAL logo and the text "BCA Plus Standards Subscription Service". Below the header, there is a welcome message: "Welcome to the BCA Plus Standards Online Subscription Service. The Building Code of Australia integrated with all referenced Australian Standards®. Terms and Conditions of use apply." The main content area is titled "Registered User Login" and contains three input fields: "User ID/User Name", "Email Address", and "Password". Below these fields is a checkbox labeled "Remember this login for my next visit." and three buttons: "Submit", "Clear", and "Remember me?". On the right side of the page, there is a small image of a building's structural frame with dimensions.

Enter the login details as illustrated below and click on submit.
